'The Early Welsh Saints'

A talk by Dr Gerald Morgan

Do the early Welsh saints count for anything in today's Wales – and who were they, anyway? Come and find out more from this talk by Dr Gerald Morgan, who has researched extensively into this shadowy area of Wales's history, disentangling fact from legend with dexterity.

A former headmaster of two secondary schools, university lecturer and a prolific writer in both the languages of Wales on a variety of aspects of Welsh history, Dr Morgan has a considerable library of his own, collected over years. His recently published autobiography, Cymro a'i Lyfrau (A Welshman and his Books) centres on these volumes, and their influence on his life.

The admission charge for this event, to include coffee and biscuits afterwards, is £8 for Friends' pre-paid bookings, and £10 at the door. If you wish to take advantage of this concessionary rate, please complete the slip below and return it with your cheque (made out to Friends of National Museum Wales) to Ann Saer, 15 Highfields, Llandaf, Cardiff. CF5 2QA (Tel: 029 2056 2756; email: annsaer15@gmail.com) by Wednesday 14 February. To minimise postal costs, no receipt will be sent. Do come – and bring your friends too, since this event is open to the public and they will be very welcome to pay at the door.
