John Piper and the making of his vision

A talk by Francis Spalding, Emeritus Fellow, Clare Hall, Cambridge

We are very pleased that the distinguished art historian Frances Spalding has agreed to come and talk to us about John Piper. Francis Spalding is also a critic and biographer and is currently Emeritus Fellow of Clare Hall, Cambridge. She is also a Fellow of the Royal Society of Literature, an Honorary Fellow of the Royal College of Art and in 2005 was made a CBE for services to Literature. She has spent her professional life with specialist interest in twentieth century British art. Her recent book on John Piper and Myfanwy Piper was revelatory and widely acclaimed.

The admission charge, to include post-lecture coffee and biscuits in the Oriel Suite, is £8 for tickets ordered in advance or £10 on the door.

To take advantage of the concessionary rate please complete the slip below and send it with your cheque, made payable to Friends National Museum Wales to Trix Pryce, 2 Maes y Deri, Rhiwbina, Cardiff CF14 6JJ. Tel: 02920 620687.
