FRIENDS' St DAVID'S DAY TEA

Thursday 28 February 2019

National Museum, Cathays Park, Cardiff

This year's traditional event to celebrate St David's Day will be held on Thursday 28 February 2019 at 3.00 pm in the Oriel Suite at the rear of the Restaurant of the Museum.

A light tea will be served after which we shall again be privileged to welcome violinist Meurig Williams and his musicians who will entertain us with a recital of music reflecting our Welsh heritage.

Admission will be strictly by prior application only, the charge being £12 per person. In view of the expected demand, attendance will be limited to members of the Friends only. In the interests of fairness a ballot will be held should the numbers of those applying exceed the limited accommodation available in the Oriel Suite. Friends will be advised of the success or otherwise of their application in good time.

If you wish to attend please complete the slip below, returning it with your cheque and a stamped self-addressed envelope, to Jane Gagg at 15 Llandennis Avenue, Cyncoed, Cardiff CF23 6JD. Tel: 02920 752338.
